Welcome to our Church Family

4th March 2018

The New Testament, when it speaks of the afterlife rarely speaks about heaven, which is surprising to our ears because when we think of the afterlife we often speak of heaven. Don't get me wrong, the bible is not disavowing the concept of heaven, merely our concept of heaven is not as grand as God presents. Heaven is considered by many Christians as a place of spirits floating about enjoying singing hymns with God. When the Bible talks about the afterlife it talks about a re-unification of our bodies with our souls, which we enjoy with all Christians.

We will all together be united with our bodies– this is the hope of the afterlife. And the power at work in the resurrection of Jesus will be at work to unite our souls to our bodies when Christ returns. This means there is value and purpose to who we each are, God doesn't merely take our souls and make something new– he unites us with our bodies and makes them fit to be in his presence. And this is all done by the power of the Holy Spirit. You will be you, with your body and you will be exactly how God wants you to be and as Paul says– it will be glorious!

AGM Notice

The 2018 AGM for St Mary Magdalene Anglican Church is set for 11:15 am on March 11.

It is a great time of hearing about God's work over the last 12 months and plans for the rest of the year.

Jews 4 Jesus

Come hear Bob Mendelsohn, national director of Jews for Jesus Australia, as he shares from the Scriptures and the richness of his Jewish heritage about Yeshua, the Messiah and Saviour of the world.

The public is invited to this free event. A free-will offering will be received from believers for the ongoing evangelistic ministry of Jews for Jesus.

Materials including books, DVDs and CDs, about the Bible, Jewish people, testimonies and other information.

Next Sunday at our 9:30 am service.
