Families

Behind most new converts is long history of faithful grandmothers, grandfathers, brothers, sisters, mothers and fathers. As we retrace our own back story as to how we became Christians, for many there is a greater back story– the faithful prayerfulness of many now coming to fruition.

Amazingly, God can pluck a person from religious obscurity and show them the beauty of Jesus, but often he works through people who love non-Christians like he does; he beautifully shows their prayers are now being answered. If you are a Christian here today, your conversion was probably a hallelujah to a faithful family member who had been praying for years.

Today we'll see what Jesus and the New Testament say about how and why to evangelize your own family and what can we expect to occur. A question we can consider, can the prayer torch be passed to you, can you be the person who is now praying for family you know and love to accept Jesus as the Christ, exactly like someone probably did for you?

What is Christianity

The aim is to help those searching for who Jesus is and those wanting to learn how to express their Christian faith. The 5 weeks will equip you to know about Jesus. We'll gather together after the morning service from 11:30 to 12:30 for 5 weeks starting on June 10.

The course is free to attend.

Sign up sheet up the back of the Large Hall

June 10-July 8, 11:30-12:30

9:30 am Service

The 9:30 am service is in need of volunteers for a number of ministries. There are a shortage of people for morning tea, welcoming, counting, bible reading, and church set up. Please speak to Trent or a warden, Stephen Matthews or Robert Mellor.
